

Recruitment, selection and induction policy

Adapted from Safe Network tool A1

This policy applies to anyone responsible for recruiting, selecting and inducting staff and volunteers Orpheus Choir and all who participate in short-listing and interview panels.

Registered Charity 260887

Brighton Orpheus Choir is committed to promoting the welfare of children and young people and keeping them safe.

We are also committed to equality, valuing diversity and working inclusively across all of our activities.

We aim to have a workforce that represents a variety of backgrounds and cultures and can provide the relevant knowledge, abilities and skills for our organisation.

The purpose of the policy:

- to recruit and select the best people available to join our workforce
- to take all reasonable steps to prevent unsuitable people from joining our organisation
- to recruit, select and manage our staff in a way that complies with legislation designed to combat inequality and discrimination
- to do all we can to achieve and maintain a diverse workforce
- to ensure that our recruitment and selection processes are consistent and transparent
- to ensure candidates are judged to be competent before we make them an offer of a job
- to ensure that new members of staff are given a proper induction

We recognise that:

- our workforce is our most important resource
- unsuitable individuals sometimes seek out opportunities via employment or volunteering to have contact with children in order to harm them
- some groups face unfair discrimination in the workplace
- children, young people and families benefit from our efforts to recruit and select a skilled and committed workforce from a diverse range of backgrounds
- new staff and volunteers cannot perform their role effectively unless they are inducted properly and receive ongoing support and supervision.

We recruit and induct our workforce by:

- where necessary advertising all posts through appropriate media and in a way that ensures that we attract high quality applicants from diverse backgrounds
- where necessary providing an application pack with relevant information for anybody who expresses an interest in an advertised job
- ensuring that all applications for both paid and volunteer positions are made using our standard application form
- involving more than one person to shortlist applicants for interview
- having at least two people conducting a face-to-face interview with anyone we may want to appoint
- incorporating the views and perspectives of children, young people, and families into the recruitment and selection process whenever appropriate
- obtaining two references, two pieces of identification and original copies of any necessary qualifications from candidates
- requiring that all staff and volunteers have an up-to-date relevant DBS check where their post is eligible for this (including a check against the barred list if the post involves regulated activity), and that staff and volunteers in such posts subscribe to the DBS online update service
- providing an appropriate induction for all new staff and volunteers
- ensuring that all staff are made aware, during their induction period, of how to keep children and young people safe in our organisation
- appointing all staff and volunteers on a trial period initially, with a review before they are confirmed in post
□ using the list of processes below to follow a consistent procedure for recruitment, selection and induction.

We are committed to reviewing our policy and good practice annually.
